New Orleans, 10 — Water is still thing in rear of the city. In many places in the third district it has crossed to the east side of the city. Skiffs and saliboats are coming into very general use in the overflowed districts. Cyprose Grove Cemetry and Spanish Fort Railroad are stryand Spanish Fort Railroad are stryangled. The water in the canals is alowny receding. The overflowed district has increased. The relief committee is assisting the hungry and drowned inhabitants.

Capital Notes.

Capital Netes.

Chicago, 10.—Journal's Washington: A leading Germania democrat claims that the has positive informat on that Senator Mahone has decided to vote to depose some democratic officer of the Senate and put republicase in their piace. He is quoted as saying republicans shall have the screetary and executive clerks, if his vote will serve them. There is temmendous exercitement among clerks in the Senate. The charge having been publicly made that the Washington gas company was spending money to influence Congress, the House, to-day ordered as investigation into the affairs of that company.

Drowning New York.

Drowning New York.

New York, 10,—It has been raining bearily and the water famine is evaded. The streets are in a lamentable and disgraceful condition. Sidewalks are flooded the whole width, water backing from accumulated snow in the road ways, and all crossings are pands of water. A back-water down town flooded cellars and basements. Many leaden pipes are bursting on roofs, rendering pedestrianism disconfortable. Pilots could not see half a boat's length. The streets near the ferries were hopelessly blocked by vehicles, waiting to cross.

A dense-Jog and heavy ice on the Sound. With difficulty, large boats reach the city. There is some danger to the pier at Long Branch.

Water Gap, Pa., 10.—Great danger of a find.

The Fisheries Frauds.

Ottawa, 9.—In the House of Com-mons, Pepe, minister of marine and faheries, said the charges of Hinds are so-our agoous that his correspondence will convict him of acting from improper mo-tives. I am happy to see that the Amer-ican government has taken this matter up, and the British government has not thought it worth while to take notice of the charges. You will find that the errors be complains of affect injuriously the in-terests of Canada.

orests of Canada.

Sir A. G. Smith, late minister of maine, said there was no foundation for the charges. What motive Hinds has cantot be ascertained. He has suggested no olution of the difficulty.
